Judge Rolando Olvera,

In the name of Christ Jesus, I write you this letter for the case of Marcos Daniel Gomez. I am Susana Gomez, mother of Marcos. I want to tell you that we have never had any problems of any type. We are a family of father, mother, two daughters and two sons. A very united family with great values and foundations in the word of God. It is for that reason that the enemy is trying to destroy us as a family, but we are trusting in an almighty God that is fighting all our battles.

Judge Olvera, allow me to tell you how Marcos Daniel is. Marcos is a young man who just turned 20, but unfortunately, it was until now that all this happened, that I found out about what happened to him when he was eight years old. Marcos was molested by a cousin of his who was nine years old at the time this happened, but Marcos never told me anything. He has always been quiet, respectful, kind, tender, honest and very studious. He was in the band at his high school, Porter High School, and he had a girlfriend who was a Porter belle there as well. Marcos does not smoke nor does drugs, and he isn't of many friends. He does have friends, but since he has a calm personality, he has a few close friends. His ways to have fun were to go out with his girlfriend to school trips such as football games since he was in the band, and she was a Porter belle. He also enjoyed competing in academic competitions. Since both are very intelligent, they competed in science and history fairs and won all the time. He also enjoyed going to the mall or the movies with his girlfriend, I would take them all the time. Other times he would ask for permission to bring her over so that they could watch movies in the living room of the house. When it came to parties, he didn't really like attending them since he didn't know how to dance. I told him that I would teach him along with his older brother since he doesn't know either. Both of them are very good young men, very calm and affectionate. He was also very enthusiastic about learning how to drive. He learned quickly so I was just telling him to go take classes so that he could get his driving permit since I thought he was still very young to get a license. That is where I saw him very enthusiastic and joyful.

Marcos Daniel always shared a room with his older brother, until my daughter got married. That was when they each got their own room since there was a free room in the house. That was when he was 16 years old, and it was when he started changing. He would sleep very late because he said he couldn't sleep; he would ask me if there was anything he could try so he could sleep well. He would spend the whole day in his room. In his free time, he would program fire sticks and along with his father and I, we would help him sell them. He was doing very well, selling a lot but at times he would struggle to program them because he didn't want to get it done. He said he was having a lot of homework, but I found that odd since he wasn't like that. I also started to notice that he didn't want to cut his hair anymore, he would let it grow long and he would just say that it was fine like that.

One time I told him that I wanted to talk to him, I asked him if he was having problems in school or with his girlfriend since he was looking worried, but he said that everything was fine. However, I noticed that he wanted to tell me something, but he didn't, so I just prayed for him there. I was even having problems in taking him to his doctor's appointments before all of this happened. He was born with a heart murmur, so he needs to visit the doctor every six months. When we went, the cardiologist told him that he had high pressure, so he started asking Marcos if he was having trouble in school, and even asked him jokingly if he was having problems with his girlfriend, but he said he didn't so the cardiologist continued making appointments to handle that high pressure. That time I was bothered by the results of his high pressure so I told him that he would start eating healthy since all he ate was burgers, pizza, and chips, but he told me that it wasn't because of that. He even insisted that he wanted to go back to our old church, International Christian Center (ICC) here in Brownsville, Texas, but we stopped attending ICC because we started supporting a cousin of his who was opening a new church. I believe he told me this because he couldn't take it anymore and desperately needed help. I also found out that he was seeking professional help with a psychologist. He wanted assistance through phone calls but was told it was only available through appointment and in person.

Judge Olvera, when one reads the word of God, one notices who is the one behind manipulating the thoughts and minds of people, trying to destroy their lives. If Marcos was someone else, he wouldn't be speaking everything so easily. Any other astute person would think "I am not going to drown myself in this even more with what I am saying." As I mentioned before, my son is very honest. Even in this situation that he is in right now, he is speaking with truth and with what he felt, even though it can harm him. What he wanted was to let everything he was feeling out, because he couldn't take it anymore. For that I thank God because if not, I am afraid he would have committed suicide.

About my grandson I can tell you that he is a beautiful kid, and it hurt us so much what happened in our family. As a family we are between a rock and a hard place because it hurts us from both sides. The first few days, my grandson asked me about Marcos, and I told him that he had gone far away to study in school. He responded that when he grows up, he doesn't want to study so he doesn't need to leave the house. On another occasion, my daughter spoke with my grandson about where Marcos was and my grandson responded by asking her if there were any bad men there, and if he was being fed correctly there. I love him so much as if he is my son, but I leave everything in the hands of God.

On Marcos' last birthday here, my grandson made him a drawing in which he drew the door of the room of Marcos, and Marcos beside it, not letting him get into his room by pulling him by his shirt to not let him go inside. When my grandson showed us that drawing, we laughed about it and told Marcos to let him go into his room, since he never let him go in. He would always say that he had a lot of homework, so he didn't want him inside. This is why we say that he didn't want to harm my grandson, because Marcos knew that wasn't right. That's why his heart was wrong, and he felt awful. It was just that I didn't know what was going on. Thankfully, Marcos always sought God and God is giving him strength.

Judge Olvera, with all due respect, I ask you in the name of Jesus that if you have a son, that the Holy Spirit touches your heart; imagine that it could be your son and have mercy on Marcos Daniel. Judge Olvera, Marcos Daniel is very regretful of what he did. All this time he has been where he is right now, has been horrendous for all of us. Judge Olvera, Marcos already asked God for forgiveness, and he also wants to apologize to his sister and his nephew. However, he also wants to apologize to you, because you are a judge here on earth and God is a judge up in heaven. I ask you in the name of Jesus, if you can forgive Marcos Daniel Gomez. God bless you.

Respectfully, Susana Gomez

To whom it may concern.

I am Cynthia Gomez and Marcos is my little brother. Marcos is a very quiet kid. Very respectful kind, polite, humble and obedient. He is a good brother and son. Everyone in our family look up to him. For achieving so much at his young age. All his scholarships and recognitions he has granted from his hard work and his dedication to school. Marcos is a very honest person, someone you can trust and count on. Marcos definitely follows the rules of the law. He knows how to drive but he chose not to simply because he still doesn't have his drivers license. There for he would still ask my parents or myself to take him to places. Marcos would follow my parents rules and any rule in general. Marcos would listen to anyone that had something to say either good or bad he would quietly sit and listen no matter what it was. Marcos never had and problems with drugs or alcohol. He was always very dedicated to his school and his school band. Always trying to over achieve his goals in life. Looking forward to start his first year ~~in~~ of college this semester. And to continue with his studies and achieve his goals and dreams to become a Cyber security in a near future. He is a good kid, and every one deserves a second chance.

Respectfully

Tuesday, July 28, 2020.

I am Jaime Gomez, brother of Marcos Daniel Gomez. I was four years old when he was born so we grew up together. We shared rooms since we were little all the way up to last August, when we were able to get our own individual rooms. Being in the same room and being together most of the time for 17 years helped me to know my brother very well, apart from the fact that he's my brother. Marcos is a intelligent, quiet and humble kid who seems serious all the time, but in reality is always calm and happy when he's with family and friends. He's not the most charismatic kid, but we sure is like any normal 18-year old who has hopes and dreams for the future (which involve college at UTREU and UTSA). Due to his character and personality, Marcos has always been an honest kid. For that same reason, he has always been disciplined and well behaved. He has never had problems with alcohol or any illegal substances, he does not even drink. He's not the type of kid to party late and look for problems. He is dedicated completely to school and the band at his school.
